

TELANGANA GRAMEENA BANK
HEAD OFFICE:: HYDERABAD

Personnel Department
Date: 23.09.2024

WEB NOTIFICATION:

CAUTION ON FAKE JOB OFFER SCAMS:

“Scammers are targeting you with fake job offers, Fake Appointment letters/ Offer letters via WhatsApp, SMS and Email etc.. Be Smart, Stay Safe, Stay Vigilant and protect yourself from fraud!”

These scammers are known to entice potential victims with offers that appear excessively attractive. The deceptive messages often include assurances of generous salaries, expedited hiring procedures, and various appealing perks. Once the scammers establish a sense of trust with their targets, they proceed to solicit sensitive personal information and in some cases, demand upfront payments for purported processing fees or training expenses.

Guidelines to prevent scams

Refrain from divulging sensitive information: Job seekers must refrain from sharing personal or financial details with individuals.

Authenticate job offers: It is imperative to verify the authenticity of job offers through legitimate sources such as the Bank's official website i.e. www.tgbhyd.in.

Or

from Telangana Grameena Bank, Head Office, Hyderabad (#2-1-520, 2nd & 3rd floors, Street No.9, Vijayasrisai Celestia, Shankermutt Road, Nallakunta, Hyderabad, Telangana-500044).

Bank will not send appointment letter/ posting letter/ offer letter etc., through e-Mail/ Post/ Whatsapp etc. to any individual. The Bank always communicate the provisionally selected candidates under Direct Recruitment through official website only i.e. www.tgbhyd.in.

Avoid payment requests: Genuine employers do not solicit payment from applicants for job opportunities, application procedures or training costs. Any such demands should serve as immediate warning signs.

Reporting of frauds: Upon receiving questionable job offers, promptly report them to the relevant entities, such as the cybercrime helpline No. 1930.

For seeking any confirmation/ enquiries with respect to Recruitment process you may reach TGB, Personnel Dept. over phone No. 9491042025.

Sd/- GENERAL MANAGER-I